

Jackie and Chris's Happy Wedding Story

The Begining

We dated for 4 and ½ years.

We got engaged in February 2005. Chris got down on one knee to ask Jackie to marry him. She said yes!!

We moved in together in December 2005.

We got married July 19th 2008.

Before The Wedding

We saved up a lot of money for the wedding.

We saved over £5000.00.

We started saving in 2005.

We were able to buy whatever we wanted and that was good.

We started to make plans and decisions for the wedding in 2005.

It took a long time to plan it out. But we got there.

The Wedding Day

It was a lovely day. A lot of people came to the wedding. About 150 people came to the service.

The Vicar was really nice and very helpful.

Our good friend Andrew gave Jackie away. He walked down the aisle with Jackie.

Chris liked the part where he and Jackie were signing the papers at the back.

Signing husband and wife.

Jackie's favorite part of the service was reading her promises to Chris.

There were lots of people outside taking pictures of us. They took photos of us in the car and also at the reception.

The Reception

The room looked very nice. We had hand-made chocolates as our gifts to the guest. Jackie really liked them !!

The food was good
The cake was good
The speeches were good
The disco was good
The whole day was very good.

We are happy that we could share the day with our family and friends.

The honeymoon.....
shhhhh its our secret.

We love being married and being a family.

Hurrah we got married !!!!
